Bill Title
An act relating to eliminating life without parole and implementing second look sentencing

Plural's AI-Generated Bill Summary Hide

The bill proposes the following:

1. Eliminate life without parole as a sentencing option.
2. Prohibit consecutive sentencing for persons 25 years of age or younger at the time of the offense.
3. Make all persons eligible for "second look" sentencing review after serving either 10 years or 50% of their sentence, whichever is less.
4. Create a process for petitioning the court for sentence reduction, including specifying eligibility criteria, petition requirements, hearing procedures, and grounds for sentence modification.
5. Allow appeals of denials of sentence reduction petitions or of the sentence modifications themselves.
6. Apply the changes retroactively to sentences imposed before May 1, 2006.
7. Take effect on July 1, 2024.

1.1 S.155

Here is a summary of the differences between the two versions:

1. The new version removes the list of specific counties that are eligible for grant awards and replaces it with broader language allowing funding for programs in a range of rural and urban counties across Washington.
2. The new version removes the requirement that applicants "have community engagement" and replaces it with the broader requirement that they "include community engagement in their services".
3. The new version adds "or" as an alternative to "and" in two places, making the listed items optional rather than required:
